SCREEN MACHINE INDUSTRIES, INC. WELCOMED PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE MITT ROMNEY FOR END GAME RALLY

For Immediate Release: November 6, 2012

On Friday, November 2nd presidential candidate Governor Mitt Romney held a victory rally at Screen Machine Industries in preparation for today's national election. A crowd of over 2,500, including concerned citizens, local business leaders and national press, packed the factory floor for this public event.

Featured speakers included several prominent members of the Republican Party, such as Congressman Pat Tiberi, Supreme Court Justice Robert Cupp, and Senator Rob Portman, who was instrumental in Governor Romney's debate preparation by playing the role of President Obama.

Screen Machine Industries President Steve Cohen, a recent speaker at the Republican National Convention, gave a brief introduction of Senator Portman who gave way to Governor Romney for the keynote speech. The primary focus of his address was on taxes, job creation, the economy and the impact of government on businesses, manufacturing and energy.
